ANN WHALING, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
DOROTHY WYATT, BUSINESS MANAGER

VOLUME THIRTY-SIX PUBLISHED BY
SALEM COLLEGE
WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA

INSIGHTS

R E W O R D

EVENTS take place today, tomorrow they are gone, and the day after tomorrow they are things of the past. In this SIGHTS AND INSIGHTS of nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, we hope to preserve for future years bits of interest about the World's Fair of New York, and our modern relationships with the peoples of the world.

DEDICATION

To

MISS MARION HUNT BLAIR

Whose keen interest and loyal devotion to the progress and development of Salem has been a never ending source
« of inspiration to the students. »

S E N I O R C L A S S

SENIOR CLASS

GERTRUDE HERON BAGWELL
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Music

Mitchell College 1, 2; Choral Ensemble 3, 4.

"Gert"

Though she might be called "Chirpy," Gert is also a hard working music student. Her greatest love is the organ. She's always ready with a chuckle that shows her friendly nature

MAUD ARRINGTON BATTLE
ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 2, 3, 4, Treas. 2, Pres. 4; Student Government Council 3, 4, Sec'y 3; Salemite Staff 2, 3, Feature Editor 3; History Club 2, 3, Sec'y-Treas. 3; Math Club 2, 3; Psychology Club 2, 3; Order of Scorpion 2, 3, 4; May Day Committees 2, 3; I. R. S. Council 4; President's Forum 4; Freshman Advisor 4; Nominating Committee 3, 4.

Paradoxical Maud—conscientious and thorough, but in spite of her impressive list of activities above she has an instinctive gift of gab and her coy remarks add spice to senior conclaves. Not glamorous but a good old girl, she's a true friend of us all.

KATHRYN NAOMI BELLAMY

KERNERSVILLE, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

History 2, 3, 4; Psychology Club 2, 3, 4;
Volley Ball 1.

"Kat"

Even chocolate fudge sundaes have no effect on her slim figure—a matter of envy to her less fortunate classmates. Friendly and even-tempered, Kathryn allows nothing to disturb her calm serenity.

PEGGY BOWEN

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

President's Forum 1; Class President 1; I. R. S. Council 1; Athletic Association 1, 3, 4, V. Pres. 4; Salemite Business Staff 1, 2, 3; Class Hockey 3, 4; Class Treasurer 2; Student Government Council 1, 3, 4; Alpha Iota Pi 1, 2, 3, 4; Marshal 3; Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Order of Scorpion 2, 3, 4; Tennis 3, 4; Nominating Committee 1; Monogram Club 3, 4.

A little girl bubbling over with a big spirit, a small whirlwind on the hockey field, Peggy is carefree and fun-loving but always with a dimpled smile to cheer the most depressed.

SENIOR CLASS

SENIOR CLASS

CATHERINE ISABEL BRANDON

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Music

Psychology Club 2; German Club 2, Choral Ensemble 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Kay"

An excellent product in a sample size—studious, lovable and sincere. Beneath her quiet exterior Catherine hides a nature, warm and friendly.

VIRGINIA ELIZABETH BRATTON

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

*Candidate for Bachelor of Arts*Alpha Iota Pi 1, 2, 3, 4, Pres. 4; Mu Alpha Theta 1, 2, 3, 4; Day Student House Committee 4; Class Honors 3; Sights and Insights Editorial Staff 4; Y. W. C. A. Committee 3."Brat"

Though she's called "Brat," she's tall in mental as well as physical stature. She works orderly and consistently on everything she undertakes. "Brat" fits her most when she gets started in a crazy or a mischievous mood.

MARY FARMER CARLTON

RALEIGH, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Peace Junior College 1, 2; Psychology Club
3, 4; Le Cercle Francais 4.

She's interested in everyone, their ideas and problems. Mary has a bright smile and a cheerful greeting that quickly dispels bad moods and make one notice that the sun is shining.

MELBA ROMAINE CLINE

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

Woman's College of the University of North Carolina 1, 2; Home Economics Club 3, 4.

Always busy at something, yet Melba goes out of her way to be friendly. She is both sympathetic and cooperative.

SENIOR CLASS

SENIOR CLASS

MARY ANNE DAVENPORT

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Order of Scorpion 3, 4; Le Cercle Francais 2, 3, 4; V. Pres. 4; Psychology Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Council 3, 4; Monogram Club 3, 4; Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Day Student House Committee 3, 4; Class Treasurer 4; Salemite Editorial Staff 3, 4; Class Volley Ball Team 2, 4; Class Hockey Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 3, 4; Freshman Advisor 4.

Her smile! That infectious grin wins many friends wherever she goes. She's a girl everyone calls a good pal. Her greatest worry is someone else's problem. Eager, willing and able! She shows remarkable ability in getting along with other people.

JANE WALLACE DAVIS

MONROE, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Queens-Chicora College 1, 2, 3; Psychology Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 4, Sec'y 4; Salemite Business Staff 4.

The latest addition to our class, yet Jane quickly made herself a vital part of it. She's eager to help and makes friends quickly—no enemies for Jane.

VIRGINIA BRUCE DAVIS

DANVILLE, VA.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

Order of Scorpion 2, 3, 4; Student Government Council 2, 3; House President 3; Home Economics 1, 2, 3, 4, Treas. 2; Salemite Business Staff 2; Sights and Insights Editorial Staff 4; Vice-Chairman of May Day 4; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 4; Y. W. C. A. Committee 2, 3; Psychology 2, 3, 4; Marshal 3; Freshman Advisor 4.

"T. B."

Petite, serene—except when she and "roomey" pretend to fight. Then she's a circus. Her rumpuses are her way of letting off steam after a lot of hard work—both academic and extra-curricular.

CHRISTINE FRANCES DUNN

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Alpha Iota Pi 1, 2, 3, 4, V. Pres. 4; Le Cercle Francais 1, 2; History 2; Class Honors 2, 3.

"Chris"

Who plays her violin so early every morning. "The early bird catches the worm" is Christine's motto, but who works hard all day and far into the night. She's "hitched her wagon to a star."

SENIOR CLASS

SENIOR CLASS

WILLIE FRANCES FULTON

GATE CITY, VA.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

Class Hockey Team 1, 2; Home Economics Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Pres. 4; Psychology Club 3; Freshman Dramatics Club 1; May Court 2, 3; May Queen 4; Salemite 1, 2, 3, 4, Ass't. Business Manager 4; I. R. S. Council 3; President's Forum 1; May Day Committee 1, 2, 3; Hiking Club 1.

"Bill"

Bill will make someone a good wife and soon, too. Orderly, always crocheting, she's happy with the little things of life. For Bill and F. L. the Senior Class wishes loads of happiness; we love them both.

EMMA BROWN GRANTHAM

RED SPRINGS, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Deutsche Verein 2, 3, 4, Treas. 3; Choral Ensemble 2, 3; Y. W. C. A. Committees 2, 3, 4; Class Treas. 3; History Club 2, 3, 4, Pres. 4; Salemite 3, 4; Sports Editor 4; Monogram Club 3, 4; Student Government Council 4; Pierettes 4, V. Pres. 4; Order of Scorpion 4; Freshman Advisor 4; Athletic Council 2, 4; President's Forum 4; Class Basketball Team 1, 2; Class Hockey Team 3, 4.

"Bengy"

"Never a worry, never a care" is Bengy's motto, but she's an enthusiastic worker. Friendly, with a cheery, good-humored air that always arouses a smile—she's a true sport.

MARGARETTE GLENN GRIFFIN

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Music

Choral Ensemble 1, 2, 3, 4; Psychology 2.

"Griffo"

A jolly little blonde. She's popular, too, and makes the telephone hum. Her other main interest is the piano. If she's as successful with it we need have no fears for Griffo.

ELIZABETH STUART HEDGECOCK

KERNERSVILLE, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

Home Economics Club 1, 2, 3, 4; V. Pres. 4;
Psychology Club 1, 2, 3; Freshman Dramatic Club 1.

A veritable giggle box—sees something funny in everything. Cooking is her specialty. She takes that seriously, but it's good enough to bring a grin to anyone's face.

SENIOR CLASS

SENIOR CLASS

BERTHA GENEVA HINE

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

*Candidate for Bachelor of Music*Choral Ensemble 1, 2, 3, 4; Psychology
Club 2.

MARY MATILDA HINES

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

*Candidate for Bachelor of Arts*History Club 2, 3, 4; Athletic Council 4; Salemite Staff 3, 4, Feature Editor 4; Horseback 1, 2, 3, 4, Assistant Manager 4.

"Tillie"

She often looks solemn, but that's just her way of hiding that dry wit. It bursts forth often in the Music Hall and sets everyone to giggling—except Bertha.

Is she fooling or not? Tillie has a wonderful imagination and can tell tall tales that keep her audience in a roar. Sometimes silly, always fun, she has a brilliant mind that she will make good use of someday.

ALICE HOLT HORSFIELD

PITTSBURGH, PA.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Psychology Club 2; Salemite 1, 2, 3, 4, General Editor 3, Associate Editor 4; Le Cercle Francais 4, Treas. 4; Pierette Club 4, Class Historian.

JOSEPHINE CUSHING HUTCHISON

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Student Government Council 1, 3, 4, Treas. 3, Off-Campus V. Pres. 4; Off-Campus House Committee 1, 3, 4, Pres. 4; Marshal 1; Math Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Sec'y 2, Pres. 4; Le Cercle Francais 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4, Treas. 2.

"Josie"

Though possessing a poetic nature with its characteristic "ups and downs," Alice has a real zest for living that gives her eyes a sparkle.

A true leader. She has a firm grip on every activity in which she has a part and sees it through to a good finish. Her dependability and versatility make her an important member of our class.

SENIOR CLASS

SENIOR CLASS

LOU ANNE JOHNSON

MAYODAN, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

Home Economics Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Executive Committee 3, 4; I. R. S. Council 1, 4; Athletic Association 4; Sights and Insights Business 4; Psychology Club 1, 4; Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Class Basketball Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Basketball 2, 3; Class Hockey Team 2, 3, 4; Varsity Hockey 3; Monogram Club 3, 4; Volley Ball Team 2, 3; Tennis 3, 4.

Little and quick as a flash. Anne's interested in people and wants to know them. She goes out a lot, talks a lot, and yet keeps up with all her work. No wonder she never stops.

HELEN LANNING

WALLBURG, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

Home Economics Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Psychology Club 2, 3, 4; Day Student House Committee 3.

A true friend for better or worse. Helen is known as one of our most cordial. She's interested in her work and will probably be the sort of teacher whose pupils admire and respect her.

LAURA LOUISE LAWRENCE

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Mu Alpha Theta 1, 2, 3, 4; Psychology Club 2, 3, 4; Salemite Editorial Staff 4.

Her impish grin and childish giggle! Seemingly irresponsible, she's absolutely dependable. Moody at times but generally happy and gay, Louise well deserves her appellation "cheerful little earful."

HELEN MURDOCH McARTHUR

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 1, 2; May Day Committee 1, Committee Chairman 2; Alpha Iota Pi 1, 2, 3, 4, V. Pres. 2, Sec'y 3; Le Cercle Francais 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Honors 1, 2, 3; Day Student House Committee 2; Order of Scorpion 2, 3, 4; Salemite Editorial Staff 2, 3, 4, Editor 4; Sights and Insights 2; Chapel Committee 3; Psychology Club 2, 3, 4; Marshal 3; President's Forum 4.

Probably destined to "go places" in commercial art. Helen is not only artistic but she has the intelligence, ambition, determination to try until she succeeds. She has a natural charm and ease of manner that all her friends admire.

SENIOR CLASS

SENIOR CLASS

EVELYN WALLACE McCARTY

FORT PIERCE, FLA.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

Home Economics Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Reporter 3; Athletic Council 3; Class Hockey Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Hockey 2, 3; Class Basketball Team 1, 2, 3; Varsity Basketball 2, 3; President Freshman Dramatic Club; Pierette Players 3, 4; Salemite Editorial Staff 3; May Day Committee 1, 2; Sights and Insights 3; Associate Editor 3; Psychology Club 2; President's Forum 4; Volley Ball 1; Swimming 1, 2, 3; Riding 2, 3; Golf 3; Monogram Club 2, 3, 4; Class President 4; Student Council 1, 4; Campus Social Committee 4; Chapel Committee 3; I. R. S. 4; Nominating Committee 4.

"Mac"

A "go-getter." Mac works hard and plays hard. Her great variety of experiences and ideas makes her one of our most interesting and intriguing personalities.

EDITH LOUISE McLEAN

LENOIR, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Music

Salemite Business Staff 1, 2, 3, 4; Advertising Manager 2, Assistant Business Manager 3; Business Manager 4; Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Choral Ensemble 1, 2, 3, 4; Sec'y-Treas. 2; Business Manager 3; Psychology Club 2, 3, 4; May Day Committee 2; Deutsche Verein 2, 3, 4.

Memorable for her numerous cracks, Edith is an unusual combination of wit, musical talent, and business ability.

MARTHA JANE McNAIR
LAURINBURG, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

House President 4; President's Forum 4;
Class Secretary 2, 4; Mu Alpha Theta 1, 2,
3, 4, Sec'y 3; V. Pres. 4; Le Cercle Francais
1, 2, 3, Pres. 4; Psychology Club 2, 3, 4,
V. Pres. 3; Class Basketball Team 2, 3;
Volley Ball 2, 3; Freshman Advisor 4;
Tennis 3.

She's well known for her letter-writing proclivities—that's because of the many good friends she has out in the world, and here—well, everyone likes her. She's conservative and poised, yet kind and lots of fun.

RUTH ANNETTE McNEELY
MOORESVILLE, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Student Government Council 3, 4; President 4; Class President 3; President's Forum 3, 4; Nominating Committee 3, 4; Chapel Committee 4; Order of Scorpion 2, 3, 4; I. R. S. Council 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 2, 3, 4, Sec'y 3; Campus Social Committee 4; Monogram Club 3, 4; Class Hockey Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Hockey 2; Class Basketball Team 1, 2, 3; Varsity Basketball 3; Volley Ball 2, 3; Tennis 3; Swimming 3; Psychology Club 2, 3, 4; Mu Alpha Theta 1, 2, 3, 4; Deutsche Verein 4; Le Cercle Francais 2, 3, 4; Sights and Insights 2; May Day Committee 1, 2; Freshman Advisor 3, 4; Freshman Dramatic Club 1, Sec'y.

Always beaming—she adds joy to the gloomiest room. She's a good doctor for a sad mood. No wonder—Annette's interested in every one and everything on Salem campus. One of our best beloved.

SENIOR CLASS

SENIOR CLASS

FELICIA MARTIN

MAYODAN, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

Class President 2; President's Forum, 2, 4; Athletic Council 2, 3, 4, President 4; Order of Scorpion 2, 3, 4; Student Government Council 2; I. R. S. Council 2; Marshal 3; Home Economics Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Psychology Club 1, 2; Salemite Editorial Staff 1; Freshman Staff 1; Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Nominating Committee 2, 4; Chapel Committee 3; Class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Hockey Team 3, 4; Varsity Hockey 4; Volley Ball 2, 3, 4; Tennis 2, 3, 4; Hiking 4; Monogram Club 3, 4; Class Honors 3.

An honor roll girl, popular, athletic, and a good leader all rolled into one. If ever a "small town girl made good," this one has.

ANNE WHITEHURST MILLS

HENDERSON, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

Meredith College 1, 2; Home Economics Club 3, 4; Pierette Players 3, 4.

One of those "frat" pin collectors. Though she's a bit reserved with her friends, her biggest joys are dancing and laughing. A major in Home Economics is rumored as a lucky choice for Anne.

MILDRED R. MINTER

LAURENS, S. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Music

Freshman Dramatic Club 1; May Day Committee 1, 3; Choral Ensemble 1, 2, 3, 4; Sec'y-Treas. 3; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 1, 3; Le Cercle Francais 1, 2; Psychology Club 2; Deutsche Verein 2, 3, 4; President 4; Salemite Editorial Staff 4; President's Forum 4.

She may be quiet and conscientious much of the time, but oh that laugh! Any small joke calls forth a good throaty one. She never laughs at any person; she's far too sympathetic and understanding.

FORREST NEWTON MOSBY

WAYNESBORO, VA.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

St. Mary's Junior College 1; Home Economics Club 2, 3, 4; May Day Committee 3, 4; Salemite Editorial Staff 4.

A little bundle of laughter—a genuine popularity girl and fashion plate. Forrest even has to keep a date book to avoid grave errors. She loves good times and adds to those of other people.

SENIOR CLASS

SENIOR CLASS

CAROLINE AMALIA PFOHL

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Science

Athletic Association 4; Home Economics Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Executive Committee 3, 4; I. R. S. Council 4; Sights and Insights Editorial Staff 4; Business 2, 3; Marshal 1; Psychology Club 1, 2; May Day Committee 3; Class Hockey Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Hockey 2; Sub-Varsity Hockey 1, 3; Class Basketball Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Volley Ball 2, 3; Tennis 2, 3, 4; Monogram Club 3, 4; Hiking Club 4; Class Vice-President 4; Day Student House Committee 2, 3, 4.

Bang, she's off! and right down the hockey field in a second. She's "action" personified and a lovable combination of impulsiveness and warm-heartedness.

FRANCES MARJORIE POWELL

EDENTON, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Choral Ensemble 1; Psychology Club, 2, 3, 4; Mu Alpha Theta 2, 3, 4; History Club 4; I. R. S. Council 3, 4; Athletic Council 3, 4; May Court 4; Hiking Club 1, 2; Tennis 3, 4; Class Hockey Team 3; Class Basketball Team 3.

"Tootie"

True blue and sincere—Tootie is a vivacious girl, popular with everyone including her professors.

KATE OWEN PRATT

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Student Government Council 4; Day Student House Committee 4; Sights and Insights Editorial Staff 3, 4; Salemite Editorial Staff 4; May Day Committee 2, 4; Alpha Iota Pi 1, 2, 3, 4; Le Cercle Francais 1, 2, 3, 4; Psychology Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Hockey Team 3; Sub-Varsity Hockey 3; Class Basketball Team 2, 3; Volley Ball 3.

A stately blonde, wears her clothes with a voguish air. Kate loves football games, bridge, and especially her "little red Ford," but they never seem to interfere with her good grades.

JOSEPHINE VASHTI RAND

RALEIGH, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Peace Junior College 1, 2; Psychology Club 3, 4; History 4.

Quiet, serene, yet cheerful and interested in everything. Jo is sincere in her friendships, has a winning generosity.

SENIOR CLASS

SENIOR CLASS

JANICE RANEY
SALISBURY, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Freshman Dramatic Club 1; Marshal 1;
Home Economics Club 1; Psychology 2, 3, 4;
Deutsche Verein 2, 3, 4; Riding 2, 3.

"Jan"

Indifferent and unconcerned about many things, Jan is a friend in its best sense. She often goes out of her way to help people out of scrapes. She loves good bull sessions and discussions of philosophy and religion.

MARGARET MONTGOMERY RICKS
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

St. Mary's Junior College 1, 2; Sights and Insights Business 4; History Club 3, 4.

Problems never weigh heavily upon Ricks' shoulders. Her characteristic light-heartedness keeps her from worrying about the little things in life. Wears sport clothes with an air—adorns her hair with perky bows. Likes Oldsmobiles and horses.

MARGARET REBECCA ROGERS
GREENSBORO, N. C.

Candidate for Bachelor of Arts

Y. W. C. A. Committees 2, 3; Y. W. C. A. "Turner"

Friendly, congenial, thoughtful! Well known for her collection of pictures and frat pins. Her appealing smile and cheerful personality have won Ann a place in the hearts of many.

A great originator and leader. The cotton and hoop skirts of May Day are her creations. Turner's satiric remarks contribute to all discussions.

"Dot"

Beauty and brains! Dorothy is a May Court girl, but displays an unusual interest and ability in biology. She becomes mildly ecstatic over modern poetry. A pleasant addition to all bull sessions and bridge games.

SENIOR CLASS

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

State—North Carolina.

County—Forsyth

City—Winston-Salem.

SECTION I

We, the Class of 1939, being of sound mind and in full possession of our faculties, preparatory to leaving the school where we have climbed the road to knowledge, do hereby declare this document to be our last will and testament.

SECTION II

We, the Class of 1938, bequeath:

To the Juniors, our staid and dignified conduct, our dormitory, our many privileges, our chapel seats, and our caps and gowns.

To the Sophomores, our little sisters, our love and best wishes that the next two years will be the best ever.

To the Freshmen, we leave this bit of advice:

Study hard now and do your very best;

Your day will come soon with plenty of rest.

To the Class of 1943, our beloved colors, gold and black, in hope that they will wear and cherish them with as much pride and loyalty as we.

SECTION III

We, Peggy Bowen and Caroline Pfohl, bequeath our ability to play hockey to Frances Angelo and Sally Emerson in hope that their team will be next year's champion.

We, Virginia Bratton and Louise Lawrence, bequeath to Anne Mewborne all the x , y , and z 's of math—not excluding all A's for grades.

I, Jane Davis, bequeath to Kelly Ann Smith my undivided loyalty to Duke.

We, Melba Cline, Elizabeth Hedgecock, and Virginia Taylor, bequeath our practice house experience to all Home Economic majors, hoping they will profit by our mistakes.

We, Rosalind Duncan and Harriet Taylor, bequeath our voices to Katherine Swain and Margaret Welfare, so they may sing louder and longer their praises of Salem.

I, Evelyn McCarty, leave to the next Senior President the responsibility of performing all Senior traditions and ceremonies with the same ease and dignity that I have tried to do.

We, Glenn Griffin, Anne Johnson, Tootie Powell, and Felicia Martin, bequeath our many dates to whoever may need them most.

I, Bill Fulton, bequeath my knack for always sewing and crocheting to the future Salemite housewives.

I, Martha McNair, leave my letter writing agility to Katherine King, in hopes that she, too, will get the same "a letter a day" results as I.

I, Tillie Hines, leave my skill for early morning horseback rides to Elizabeth Winget.

We, Frances Watlington, Mildred Minter, and Edith McLean, bequeath our endless efforts to harmonize to Marie Fitzgerald, Jennie Lynn, and Rhea Gaynelle Sikes.

I, Mary Thomas, leave my good luck at Senior Dinner to Frances Klutz.

I, Nan Totten, bequeath my love for my social work to Mabel Pitzer and hope that she will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Frances Turnage, as a result of always being teased, leave my good nature to Patty McNeely.

We, Angela Styers, Kathryn Bellamy, and Catherine Brandon, leave to all day students our perfect attendance at chapel.

I, Maud Battle, leave my library schedule to Emily McCoy in case she is too busy to fix one next year.

I, Ann Whaling, leave my interest in Davidson to Grace Gillespie, so she may have as pleasant week-ends there as I have.

I, Peggy Rogers, bequeath a twin of "Euripides the Ford," along with the garage, to all future practice teachers.

I, Josephine Hutchison, leave my leadership, dependability and ever-readiness to help to Sara Burrell.

We, Helen McArthur and Alice Horsfield, bequeath our good records in French to Geraldine Baynes and hope that she will uphold them.

I, Annette McNeely, leave my executive ability to the next Student Government President in trust that she will have as successful a year as I.

I, Mary Furner Willis, leave my originality, versatility, as well as my patience, to future May Day Chairmen.

We, Kate Pratt and Dorothy Wyatt, bequeath our English knowledge to all Sophomores who struggle with English Literature.

I, Mary Lee Salley, leave my poster-making technique, as well as my paints and crayons, to Betsy O'Brien.

I, Jessie Skinner, leave my happy-go-lucky spirit to Margaret Patterson with the hope that it will be well cherished.

I, Worthy Spence, leave my amiable personality and conscientiousness to Lee Rice.

I, Virginia Bruce Davis, bequeath my friendliness and winning smile to Mary Venable Rogers, who may use it to the best advantage.

We, Jo Rand and Mary Farmer Carlton, leave our quiet but ever-welcome spirit to Ella Walker Hill and Louise Norris.

I, Mary Davenport, leave my habit of spending the whole day at school to Annie Sue Hendrix.

I, Emma Brown Grantham, bequeath my picture-taking hobby to Esther Alexander, but she must let me use the negatives.

We, Hannah Teichman, Marian Sosnik, and Gertrude Bagwell, bequeath our interest in the Day Student Building to Margaret Holbrook.

We, Helen Lanoing and Anne Mills, in expectation of a future home of our own, bequeath our never-failing cooking recipes to Jane Alice Dilling.

I, Forrest Mosby, leave my hopes for a private telephone on third floor tenants in the years to come.

We, Mary Louise Siewers and Margaret Ricks, leave the time we spent going and coming to school each day to Jane Kirk, so that she will always be on time.

I, Janice Raney, bequeath all my extra week-ends to all who would like to go home more often.

We, Kay Snead and Christine Duno, leave our many practicing hours to any music student who needs them to be on the honor roll.

SECTION IV

We, the Class of 1939, bequeath:

To Dr. and Mrs. Rondthaler, who have been our inspiration at all times, our best love, respect and appreciation.

To Miss Lawrence and Miss Turlington, our sincere thanks for their comradeship in guiding us through our college days with such good care.

SECTION V

To Salem College:

We, the Class of 1939, bequeath to our Alma Mater our eternal love and loyalty and our fond wishes for her future growth and prosperity.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this third day of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, Anno Domini.

PEGGY ROGERS.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by Peggy Rogers, the testator, for the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-Nine, as their last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at her request, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witness.

EVELYN McCARTY, President.

MARTHA MCNAIR, Secretary.

SEZ PEONY IN 1950

New York Cite
June 31, 1950.

Dere Ma,

Here I is at this wunnerful World's Fare an I is so excited that I kin hardly kontane myself. I been walkin' all over the place the hole week, so I is takin' tonite off to write you an all the folks. Seen so many tremendus things an so many famus people that I hardly knows where to begin. Also seen a lot of my ole Salem frens, an since you know thim, I'll write 'bout thim furst.

When I went in the farm bilding to take Granny's blue-ribbin quilt an Unkle Ezra's prize squashes I run into Virginia Taylor an Elizabeth Hedgecock at a booth telling people how to make prize pikles an pies. Ann Mills an Helen Lanning wuz at another booth advisin' the ladies about lookin' after there younguns. Bill Fulton wuz there talkin' to the baby ladies about whut to do fer her littlest darter, Lillie. She's tryin' to grow her into a futur May Queen fer Salem an' she wants her nice an' purty. Forrest Mosby wuz there too, trying to find out how to make her young son use big wurds, an' grow up to be a ladies' man like his pappy. There wuz a exhibit in that bilding by Mary Worthy Spence's "Do-Better" Clubs, which she had bin organizing in the rural kumunities 'round Karthage. Also saw the new "pursnality soks," designed by Caroline Pfohl fer anybudy who needs pursnality soks. I bot Pappy a parz.

Wuz wanderin' round in the librarie the other day an' Marion Sosnick spoke to me, only I kuldn't unnerstand whut she wuz a-sayin'. Sounded like "Komment alley vu, madamyzelle." She said she wuz gittin' her p. h. d. in French this yere. Mand Battle and her husband wuz in there autografin' kopies of their newest book, "How an' Why we thinks!" Mary Lee Salley, with the help of Mary Angela Styers, wuz entertainin' all the chilluns with her excitin' play, "Billy, the Goose in Duckland." Helen McArthur an' Alice Horsfield's new liturary magizine, "The Blue-Monday Revue of Writin'," wuz on one of the tables an' I had a nize time readin' it, only I didn't know whut they wuz talkin' 'bout most of the time. Kay Snead had rote up all the new songs fer it, an' Helen Totten had a artikle on "The Kare an' Feedin' of Books fer Younger Chilluns" on the furst page. There wuz a letter on the Home-Ek page from Mary Thomas telling how to make delicus spoon-bred outer hole whet flower. Some gal, Mary! She allus could do quare things. You know, she's marred now an' livin' in Winston, where she an Kate Pratt are the leders of the kumunitie. Katey marred a "leading lite" there, an' she says the spoon-bred is real good too. There wuz a interstin' artikle in there about Janice Rauey's painless method of lernin' the names of states an' there kapitals. She begun this idear in collitch an' has now perfekted it.

Zeke an' me wuz over to the "hottest hot-spot at the Fare" the other nite an' it beat anything I ever seed before. The mane attrachson wuz Tootie Powell an' Jessie Skinner doin' the newest dause craze, "The Nags Hed Hop." Both the gurls is marred now an' real happy, only I heered that Jessie spanks her chilluns ever onct in a while with a Fuller brush. Mr. Fill Spitoon an' his all gurl orkestra wuz playin' fer the dansers an several of the Salem gurls wuz at the instrumts. Christine Dunn wuz sawin' on her fiddly, Melba Cline an' Virginia Bratton wuz tootin' the horns, Gertrude Bagwell wuz goin' to town on the orgen, an' Bertha Hines wuz tiklin' the piany keys. Edith McLean wuz akompanyin' Frances Watlignon an Tillie Hines fer there brod-kast there ever nite over the Pink an' Purple Network. They played an sung lovely songs, only oncet in a while Matildy hit one of thim wrong notes. Harriette Taylor an' Rosalind Duncan, the 2 famus opery singers an' Frank Campbell, the noted miestro got up to take a bow, but we couldn't git thim to perform. Had my likeness struck while I wuz in there by Emma Brown Grantham, who is the "Pineer in the feld of woman's fotografy," whatever that may be. She makes movin' pitchers too, an' in her last one Glenn Griffin wuz the heryine an' Louise Lawrence the komedienne. Ran into Annette McNeely, who is the new North Karolinay kongress-wumon in Warshington. Ann Whaling kum in dressed fit ter kill. She is the hed model fer Sacks in New York. Frances Turnage wuz there too, an' she tole me that she had a hard time gittin' the nite off from her lektures on "Techin' Meningful Rithmetik." Mary Turner Willis, now appearin' in the newest Broadway hit, Unkle Tom's Pent Hous, breezed by to joine her husband, the U. S. Ambassdor to the Figi Islands, at Martha McNair's table. Martha an' her millionare hubby were stoppin' over on there way to Morehed Citie fer the summer. She tole me that Josephine Hutchison couldn't kum to the Fare kause she was stayin' home with her "fits." Ain't that a pekular thing to stay home with! Margaret Ricks, Mary Louise Siewers, an' Peggy Bowen kum in with there eskorts. Margaret and Mary Louise is sochal butterflies in New York, an' Peggy is knoduktin' "Kallie Foutz" kampanes fer all the sad-bird collitch gurls to help them be suckessful like she is. Quite surprized to see Virginia Bruce Davis there. She usule spends her time travelin' round to the tobaky markets with her husband. She tole me that Peggy Rogers had settled down in Laurinburg an' wuz marred to the minister there. Peggy always wuz interested in prechermen.

Had a deliteful time ridin' on the Merrie-go-round an' the Ferris whele, which is in the amuzement bildin'. There wuz all kinds of stunts an' acks goin' on there too. Mary Lee Cowper an' Hannah Teichman nerely skaret me to deth with there trapeze swingin' and when I seen Mary Davenport do her "fire-dive" into a buket of water, I kum nere faintin'. Jane Davis wuz there watchin' the performance. She had with her "stacks" of little boys who all says they is all gonna grow up to be football players fer Dook. Mildred Minter was with thim too, as she is techin' them singin' an' German. She is whut you kall a "tooter." Katharine Bellamy wuz in there too, gittin' idears about things to tech her children to make in there industrial art klasses.

In the Hall of Siense, which is a very fasinatin' place, I seen Dorothy Wyatt, who has turned down all marriage proposels to bekum the "second Pasture in the field of medicine." That don't make sense—a pasture in a feld—but that's whut Josephine Rand tole me, an' she oughter know, betn' as how she wuz in charge of everthing in that bildin'. Evelyn McCarty wuz in there lookin' at the new-fangled airypplanes. She is a lisened pilot now an' she barnstorms round the kuntry with her husband. Mary Farmer Carlton wuz demonstراتin' how the resently diskovered tenth dimenson wurks on dry land. Met Ann Johnson an' Felicia Martin kumin' out. They been tourin' the kuntry givin' hokey an' basketball lessons. They jest got back from Wasser, where they learnt them gurls a few things.

All my frens were real surprized to learn that me an' Zeke has bekum man an' wife an' that we is here at the Fare on our honeymoons. We sure is havin' a elegant time, but we missed you heaps. Keep pappy out of the sun an' his bottle. You know whut the hete does to him.

Bee home soon as the money gives out.

Luve,

CLASS HISTORY

Everything progresses at Salem—change eternal the keynote of our school—while our class was here we saw much of it—new gymnasium, new library, new stage in Old Chapel, new entrance to Memorial Hall—new Lecture Series—new teachers—new girls every year—and yet the spirit of Salem remains the same—our class moved through four years of change—and comes to the end of them to see a newly beautified Salem—but with the heart left unchanged—our class changed—but goes out with the same eagerness and enthusiasm for Salem with which it came—imbued with a love of our Alma Mater and its ideals with which it has been saturated for four years—the joys, sorrows, fun and work of four years moulded our class from our Freshman orientation to graduation week—moulded us from a number of Freshmen to one united class, working and playing together—this, then, is not a class history, but a record of a progression—in our class and at Salem and, as such, we give you ourselves—first as—

Freshmen—a little scared, but eager—that long wait to register—those curious glances at so many strange faces—the night of the bonfire—singing on the ride through town in the big buses—in-between songs playing “Do you know”—confiding in our Big Sisters and being advised by our Senior advisors to keep up on history parallel and not to cut chapel—the after-luncheon speech by Mrs. Holt Heywood on “Poise”—which we sadly needed—the hayride and picnic supper by a bonfire with the Athletic Association as hostesses—learning “Stand Up and Cheer”—Sophomore Court—Freshmen in freakiest outfits and Sophomores in glamorous evening gowns—Janice Raney and “I Love You Truly”—Peffy Bowen elected President of the class—The glorious day when the Rondthalers returned from England—our first glimpse of our Prexy in chapel, flower and all—joining Salemite and Annual staffs—Freshman Commission—Freshies being victorious over Big Sisters in hockey, Hutchison, McCarty, and Bowen shining then as now—Freshman Dramatic Club—“Joint Orders in Spain”—Lizzie Trotman and Mary Turner Willis bowing to the footlights for the first time—Christmas spirit—leaning out of third floor Clewell windows watching the Seniors carol by candlelight—Christmas Vespers—first holidays—attempting to impress the family with a worldly college woman attitude—that black, black month of January with the shadow of exams hanging over all—those homesick nights—dancing with John Watlington—dinner with the Rondthalers—Eugene Ormaudy and the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra—the rage for bicycle riding—and roller skating on the third floor—Spring—a fair number of Freshmen prom-trotting at C. Hill, Raleigh, Durham, and Davidson—Felicia Martin elected President of the rising Sophomore Class—Freshman Dramatic Club producing “The Stepmother” in expanded chapel—first term papers: long hours in the old library surrounded by references, note cards and reams of yellow paper—SIGHTS AND INSIGHTS appearing, pored over and in it are our own Bill Fulton and Julia Preston gowned as lovely Elizabethans out of Shakespeare—going from room to room watching the Juniors and Seniors dress for the Junior-Senior prom—envious eyes watching the dates come—Wednesday, April 22, the plans for the new gymnasium revealed in chapel—“truly a dream come true”—Dr. Rondthaler—May Day—gloating over our three Freshman beauties in the court—Mother Goose rhymes in the pageant—Freshmen having the Juniors to supper at the fireplace on the hill—Mr. Curlee’s jokes—exams—no longer Freshmen, but practically Sophomores, we face them bravely—those last days of studying, bulling, packing and then the last glimpse of the ivy—covered walls and columns as we roll away for a while.

September and Sophomore superiority—hazing the poor little Freshmen unmercifully—a solemn court of cruel judges in chapel—new gym almost finished—Miss Lilly married—Mr. Bair and Mr. Holder appearing among our faculty—John Downs inches taller—struggling over Sophomore Lit—the red-letter day when Christopher Morley came on the new lecture series—wails over Carolina-Duke catastrophe—Thanksgiving holidays—four whole days to play, eat, and sleep—tests and then—leaning out of second story windows watching the Seniors carol by candlelight—that train home—Louis Untermeyer helping to allay those homesick blues after Christmas—watching the corner-stone being laid to the Hall of History—flirting with Roberto de la Rose, the Mexican good-will student, who sang and played on his guitar for us—exams—new lease on life and sleepless nights—February 4, plans for new library announced—"Truly another dream come true"—Dr. Rondthaler—dime banks filled with those extra pennies—Athletic Association dance, hilariously opening the new gym—dancing with John Watlington—Sophes beat Seniors and Juniors in basketball—Annette McNeely elected President of the rising Junior Class—cut system being changed by student vote—Miss Riggan's engagement to the Rev. Gordon Spough announced—May Day—four Sophomores in the court—May Day dance, with court beauties in full regalia—scores of Salemites taking up archery under the direction of Mr. Holder—Sophomores giving Seniors an elegant tea at the Carteret—Mr. Julien Bryan holding us spell-bound with his fascinating travel lectures and movies—six-paged Salemite started because of so much gossip about Sophomores—marshals selected, with Worthy Spence as Chief—again, exams—and the year of not being an Inbetween is over—the year of not being a new girl, a Big Sister of a Senior Advisor.

As Big Sisters returning to Salem in the fall—showing our youngsters the ropes—Miss Turlington's face becomes familiar to us—Mrs. Grace Sloan Overton spending a week at Salem, talking to us—Edward Weeks lecturing brilliantly—making money for Junior-Senior Prom—Juniors feting Freshies at a class kid party—"Percival" Bowen and "Mr." E. B. Grantham shining—two Juniors in Who's Who, boosting our Class Ego—Hattie Butner riding again—watching the Christmas caroling Seniors—getting mail for the underclassmen on Sunday to make money for the Junior-Senior Prom—those last tests and rushed packing of the days before the holidays—moving books from the old to the new library—February 4, Red Letter Day—the new Library opening—Junior Masquerade—Benet speaking—and soon after hearing Richard Crooks in the Civic Music Series—class sponsoring a picture contest—Mary Lee's Charlie has the most character-revealing face—faculty presenting "Helen and the Trojans," a never-to-be-forgotten night in the lives of all Salemites—making money for the Junior-Senior Prom by serving breakfasts in bed to lazy classmates on Sundays—elections—this time ones from our ranks being selected to guide the course of Salemites for '38-'39—Annette McNeely, Worthy Spence, Maud Battle, Mary Turner Willis, Felicia Martin, Helen McArthur, and Anne Whaling assuming the roles as heads of various activities—Mr. and Mrs. Untermyer returning—reading to us in our new Lecture Room on Sunday afternoon—Student Government dance—dancing with John Watlington—reddest-letter day of all: Junior-Senior tea and evening dance—in our finest gowns playing hostesses to the Seniors—ah, Perfect Night—May Day—Greek maidens arraying the hill, with Odysseus and Nausicaa cavorting below—John Mason Brown lecturing—Senior magazine, Melley, appearing, including works of our inspired ones—hat-burning—"There's Moonlight on the Campus Tonight"—that queer feeling when the cap and gown went on—exams—last days of Junioriority.

Seniors—"standing at the portals" at first chanel—marching down the aisle in cap and gown glory—hostesses at the tables—suites in Louisa Bitting Building—two nights out a week, plus week ends—post office privileges on Sunday—comic opera, "Bastien and Bastienne," opening the season in a musical way—Student Government Dance—dating John Watlington—Senior Salemite reporters interviewing George Hall—Mrs. Bertita Harding lecturing in her fascinating style—Dr. and Mrs. Rondthaler entertaining Seniors and dates at dinner—momentous evening—every suite in Senior cluttered with favors the rest of the year—Senior-Faculty dinner on Halloween night—Josephine Antoine and Conrad Thibault on the Civic Music Series—Thibault being interviewed by Salemite and found extremely human—tree-planting—Seniors in Children's Literature Class presenting a week of skits and chapel programs about Book Week—three Seniors attending Press Convention at Duke—Salem sponsoring Davidson-Wofford game—hockey team going to Duke—Miss Appleby searing the life out of dignified "stupid" Seniors—T. R. S. dance—our lovely Worthy Spence leading the figure with her father—Colored Help Show—Christmas vespers—Seniors at last singing carols to our friends that last night—holidays—exams—enough said—Kirsten Falgstad—Valentine dance—Sir Arthur Willert lecturing—last semester blues—Senior plutocrats with cars leaving Bitting every Saturday—Seniors studying in between fun—Easter holidays—those last, last term papers—Junior-Senior, this time Seniors enjoying it especially because they didn't have to work and slave for it—May Day, with our own Bill Fulton and Mary Thomas, as May Queen and Maid of Honor in old-fashioned gowns, presiding over the court—May Day dance—exams and then graduation—tears and smiles all mixed together—"The Son of God Goes Forth to War"—families all meeting each other—memories—"There's moonlight on the campus tonight, so Salem give this night to me—a dream to put my finger on"—and we shake Dr. Rondthaler's hand, and that's all—we're through.

Alma Mater

*Strong are thy walls, oh, Salem,
Thy virgin trees stand tall,
And far athwart the sunlit hills
Their stately shadows fall.*

CHORUS

*Then sing we of Salem ever,
As proudly her name we bear,
Long may our praise re-echo,
Far may our song ring clear.*

*Firm is thy faith, oh, Salem,
Thy future service sure,
The beauty of thy heritage
Forever shall endure.*

*True is our love, oh, Salem,
Thy name we proudly own,
The joy of comradeship is here,
Thy spirit makes us one.*

LIGHT IS CHEAP— SIGHT IS PRICELESS

Light costs so little today that everyone can afford good lighting. Ruined eyesight is costly in medical attention, discomfort, lost time and decreased personal efficiency. Check up on your home lighting today. We will gladly send one or more of the beautiful I. E. S. Lamps to you to try out in your home and see for yourself the wonderful change that they will make. There will be no obligation to buy whatsoever on your part.

Adam and Eve in the Garden had had a pretty hard day naming the animals. "Well, Eve," says Adam, "let's call this one a 'hippopotamus'."

"But, darling, why call it a 'hippopotamus'?"

"Well, heck, it looks like a hippopotamus, don't it?"

WEDGWOOD SALEM PLATES

These dinner service size plates, made in England by Wedgwood, depict eight views of the Salem Campus. They are available in five colors: green, sepia, blue, rose-pink, and mulberry. Beautiful and useful in themselves, these plates will be most valued for their associations with the happy recollections of yesteryear.
